Section 5 — AUTHORIZATION For the Release of Information

To: (1) Any licensed physician, medical practitioner, hospital, clinic, or other medically related facility, (2) any insurance company or health maintenance organization (or similar type organization or institution), and (3) the Medical Information Bureau. So that eligibility for life or disability coverage can be determined, I authorize you to give any data or records you may have about me or my mental or physical health to The Prudential Insurance Company of America and/or its subsidiaries and, through it, to its reinsurers, authorized agents, and the Medical Information Bureau. This also applies to any dependent proposed for coverage in the application. This authorization is valid for the lesser of (1) two years after the effective date of any coverage issued in connection with it or (2) 30 months after the date it is signed. A photocopy of this form will be as valid as the original. The person(s) who signed this form (1) have received a copy of the "Medical Information Notice" and (2) may have a copy of this authorization if they wish.

Medical Information Notice

When we evaluate your request for insurance, the state of health of the person(s) for whom insurance is requested is, of course, extremely important to us. Consequently, we need to ask you questions about the health and medical history of each person. In addition, you are also requested to authorize any physician or hospital to provide us with reports, if necessary, about the health of each person. In some instances, we may require a physical examination.

Any information we obtain regarding a person's insurability will be treated as confidential. We may, however, make a brief report of it to the Medical Information Bureau (the Bureau), a non-profit membership organization of life insurance companies, which operates an information exchange on behalf of its members. When you apply for life, disability, or health insurance to any company, including Prudential, which is a member of the Bureau, or submit a claim for benefits to such a company, the Bureau will, on request, give the company the information in its files. We may reveal this information, as necessary, to a doctor, if we find a serious health problem which you do not know about. We may also reveal this information to persons conducting mortality or morbidity studies. We will, if you ask, give you a description of other circumstances when we disclose information about you without your prior authorization.

You have the right to see any of the personal information we collect about you and to make corrections if necessary. If you ask, we will furnish you with instructions on how to exercise this right. In addition, upon receipt of a request from you, the Bureau will arrange disclosure of any information it may have in your file. If the information came from the Bureau and you question the accuracy of the information in the Bureau's file, you may contact the Bureau and seek a correction in accordance with the procedures set forth in the Federal Fair Credit Reporting Act. The address of the Bureau's Information Office is P.O. Box 105, Essex Station, Boston, Massachusetts 02112 617-426-3660.

It is required that you be given this notice.

Please read it carefully and keep it for your records.
